

Will you ? would you ?

I did it again,
Started acting normal
and finally going crazy
It's so much more fun that way They think you are standard
They expect you to behave
and suddenly you act up.
You make them realise
there is so much more to life than walking straight and being like everybody.
You only get one chance, You'd better make your move
fast
it might not last but at least you'll have a blast Just try not to get hurt and not hurt anyone.
Show them what they can do
by seeing you,
they follow through They'll come to you, Thinking you know how to Enjoy it all
They are right
It's in your heart
When are you going to start ?
